EXPERIENCE

The Complete Web Developer 2018: Zero to Mastery

December 2017 - April 2018

Full Stack Web Developer

Trained in the most relevant skill set to create complex applications and web sites. The apps we deployed included:

- a fully functioning face recognition app using a RESTful API, designing front end and back end architecture (see the app at facerecapp.herokuapp.com)
- a "Robofriends" app, using React.js to create a repository of user information and search function capability
- HTML and CSS to create a startup landing page and website portfolio
- contributing developer to community based open source projects on GitHub
- see my Javascript tutorials at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a-IbUyGxewI&list=UUd1IPhz10TvUu0Bwgxs3Yag>

Sogang Language Program, Republic of Korea

January 2015 - March 2017

English Teacher

Taught English in Korea for two years for students aged 6-15 years old. This role came with a great amount of responsibility and duties, including strong leadership skills in the classroom as well as developing a year long curriculum and applying the material in a creative way. Immensely enjoyed this experience and created many strong relationships.

Freelance Video Marketing

January 2013-January 2015

Self-employed

Freelance videographer. Consulted on a three month production with a large government agency. Skills included shooting video, editing video, setting up and managing audio and lighting on set, scouting locations, casting actors, script writing, and working with clients to perfect their marketing message.

United States Congress

February 2011-January 2013

Congressional Staffer

CODING

I'm an eager consumer of all things coding related. A small sample of my daily coding diet: Hacker Noon and freeCodeCamp with Quincy Larson on Medium; daily listening of Software Engineering Daily, Javascript Jabber, or the freeCodeCamp podcast; endless JSUnconf talks on YouTube; email subscriptions to React Status and JavaScript Weekly

EDUCATION

Michigan State University

2008

Bachelor of Arts in Journalism
